FRANKLIN'S WHISTLE .- A well dressed lady from the country recently called at the historical rooms in Hartford, and after inspecting the other curiosites, requested to be shown the whistle which Tranklin paid too dear for, as she had been informed it was kept there. The attendant, though slightly taken aback at first, rallied in time to exhibit an ancient pitch pipe which happened to lie near. The visitor, having examined the curiosity attentively, departed with own eyes the instrument that sounded the key note to poor Richard's proverbs. HAMILTON SOLD OUT BY THE SHERIPF .- The financial difficulties of the city of Hamilton at length have culminated in a sale by the sheriff of a portion of the chattel property owned by the municipality. The sale took place in the City Hall on Friday, when the furniture of the council chamber, &c., was all sold; but other goods, for which only small bids were made, were withdrawn. Among the articles sold were several pictures presented to the city by

COTTON Drck.—At the present price of cotton duck, a suit of sails for a ship of 1,000 tons would cost not less than $5,500, not including bolt-rope manufacture, &c., reckoning 7,500 yards for the suit, at an average price of 75c. per yard. For a ship of 1.000 tons, No. 3 duck is used, which weighs one pound to the yard, a fact that will give some idea of the amount of cotton used, as well as the weight of a suit

17 It has leaked out that some of the largest fashionable hatters of New York have comtired to have a small counting-house almanac printed immediately above their cards in the hats which they turn out for the year 1963; so that, in consequence, if a hat after that year begins does not contain an almanac, it will be of an old steck, or else not the make of a fash. ionable hatter.
